OBTAINING VEHICLES TITLES VIA DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

NOTICE**

This package is designed to help people seeking to represent themselves in court without the assistance of an attorney. It is not intended as a one size fits all packet. It may be necessary for you to seek the advice of a qualified attorney to fully understand or protect your rights.

One resource available is:

Escambia-Santa Rosa Bar Association Lawyer Referral

Address: 216 S. Tarragona St., Pensacola, Fl. 32502

Phone: (850) 434-8135

Hours: 8:00 am-4:00 pm

It is meant to serve as a guide only.

We do not guarantee that either the instructions or the forms will achieve the result desired by the parties or ensure that any individual judge will follow the procedure exactly or accept every form drafted.

Any person using these instructions and forms does so at his or her own risk.

Please note that Florida law prevents our staff from providing legal advice.

FILING FEE: $300.00 for property valued under $ 15,000.00 - filed in county court.

$ 400.00 for property valued over $15, 000.00, but less than $50,000.00 - filed in county court.

$ 400.00 for property valued $50, 0000 - filed in circuit court.

Payable by cash/ cashier's check/ money order/ credit card (MasterCard, Visa, American Express, Discover)

(A service charge of 3.5% will be added when using credit card)

There is also a $10.00 charge for documents that must be notarized at the clerk's office.

It is possible to obtain a declaratory judgment to assist you in obtaining a title for a vehicle you own, but for which you did not receive a title at the time of purchase. This can sometimes prove to be a lengthy and complex process. Obtaining this type of court order is not a one size fits all process. The Court may issue an Order or Declaratory Judgment directing the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles to issue a certificate of title for your vehicle.

Before the Court will consider issuing such an order or Declaratory judgment, you must take the following steps:

- 1) You must make a diligent search to locate the former owner to transfer title.
- 2) You must provide a bill of sale, cancelled check, letter, memorandum, or some means of establishing your rights to ownership of the vehicle.
- 3) If the former owner has moved from the area without leaving a forwarding address you should mail a certified, return receipt requested letter demanding title to the vehicle to the former owner's last known address.
- 4) You must get a form provided by the tag office which lists the last title number issued to this vehicle, to whom the title was issued and that there are no liens against the vehicle.
- 5) You must get a Motor Vehicle Identification Number Inspection Sheet from your county Sheriff's office, establishing that the vehicle has not been reported as stolen as per the Vehicle Identification Number (VIN).
- 6) You will be required to complete an affidavit for Vehicle Title Application, this document must be notarized.
- 7) The last known person to have owned the vehicle must be served this lawsuit in a manner compliant to the Florida Statutes/Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.
- 8) If you are unable to serve the respondent, you may serve the respondent by publication in a newspaper. An Affidavit of Diligent Search and Inquiry (must be notarized) and a Notice of Action are included in this packet. The Notice of Action must be published in newspaper. The publication must run in the paper once a week for four consecutive weeks. The newspaper will charge you a fee for this service. The newspaper will provide you with a notarized affidavit of proof of publication for the Notice of Action. This affidavit of proof of publication is required to be filed with the clerk's office. This is proof to the Court that it was published according to the Florida Statutes.
- 9) You must file the completed paperwork with the clerk of the circuit court. A filing fee is required.
- 10) Once the paperwork is filed and the respondent has been served the case, it can be reviewed by the Judge for consideration upon action filed by the petitioner and/or respondent.
- 11) If the Judge signs an order and/or a declaratory judgment, and a copy will be emailed or sent via regular mail to you by the Judiciary staff.
- 12) A party not represented by an attorney is required to provide an email address for the service of court documents, unless the party is in custody or unless the party is excused by the Clerk because the party declares under penalty of perjury that they do not have an email address or do not have regular access to the internet. These forms are in the latter part of the packet. Select the form appropriate for you to receive documents from the court.

13) For further information contact the Clerk of Court office at 850-981-5665

Additional Information

Once the respondent in the case has been successfully served it will be your responsibility to follow the progression of the case and it may be necessary for you to file additional documents or motions to the Court.

After successful service on the respondent, the respondent has twenty days to file a response with the Court and to provide you a copy of that response.

If the Respondent has been served and they file a response/answer with the Court, the Judge will review the response/answer and determine the next actions that will be taken in the case.

It is your responsibility to monitor your email/mail for any correspondence from the Court directing you to take other actions, setting a hearing, etc.

The clerk's office will not call you. You must keep yourself knowledgeable of the actions the Court may have taken in your case.

Aside from reviewing your emails, you may call the Clerk's office to inquire about your case, and you may also review the documents in your case by viewing the case file online at www.santarosaclerk.com , search court records.

If the Respondent has filed a response/answer with the Court, after reasonable time has elapsed, you may request for the Judge to set a hearing in the matter.

We have included a form titled (Request for Notice of Hearing) in this packet to assist you if you decide to utilize it.

If successful service of the Respondent has taken place and the time for filing a response/answer has lapsed, you must motion the Court to proceed with the case.

We have included some forms to assist you if you decide to utilize them.

Notice: Additional Requirement

Service of Pleadings and Documents

A party not represented by an attorney is required to provide an email address for the service of court documents, unless the party is in custody or unless the party is excused by the Clerk because the party declares under penalty of perjury that they do not have an email address or do not have regular access to the internet.

RULE 2.516. SERVICE OF PLEADINGS AND DOCUMENTS

(C) Service on and by Parties Not Represented by an Attorney. Unless excused pursuant to subdivision (b)(1)(D), any party not represented by an attorney must serve a designation of a primary e-mail address and also may designate no more than two secondary e-mail addresses to which service must be directed in that proceeding by the means provided in subdivision (b)(1) of this rule. November 17, 2022 Fla. R. Gen. Prac. & Jud. Admin. Page 168 of 252

(D) Exceptions to E-mail Service on and by Parties Not Represented by an Attorney.

(i) A party who is in custody and who is not represented by an attorney is excused from the requirements of email service.

(ii) The clerk of court must excuse a party who is not represented by an attorney from the requirements of e-mail service if the party declares on Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration Form 2.601, under penalties of perjury, that the party does not have an e-mail account or does not have regular access to the Internet. The clerks of court shall make this form available to the public at their offices and on their websites. If a party not represented by an attorney is excused from e-mail service, service on and by that party must be by the means provided in subdivision (b)(2).

(E) Time of Service. Service by e-mail is complete on the date it is sent.

Use Form 2.601, Request To Be Excused from Email Service, if you wish to be excused from this requirement. The clerk must approve your declaration for you to be eligible for exemption. You may seek review by a Judge by requesting a hearing time if the clerk does not approve your exemption from email service.

Use Form 2.602, Designation of Email Address for A party Not Represented By An Attorney, if you agree to provide an email address for the service of court documents.

Use Form 2.603, Notice of Change of Address or Designated Email Address, to update or change your email address should the need arise. It is your responsibility to keep the court notified of any changes in your address, email address, and telephone number. It is also your responsibility to follow the progression of your case. Remember email service from the court is complete on the date it is sent. Check your email account, spam folders and junk mail often.

WHEREAS, the Florida Supreme Court has issued Administrative Order 20-23, Amendment 12, which directs that each chief judge should issue an administrative order requiring presiding judges to actively manage civil cases; and

WHEREAS, the Florida Supreme Court has further directed that each circuit maximize the timely resolution of civil matters, and requires that attorneys and judges strictly observe and comply with Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.545; and

WHEREAS, AOSC 20-23, Amendment 12, sets forth specific provisions for civil case management and resolution which are applicable to the existing backlog of civil cases, which are addressed herein by the undersigned in order to facilitate the timely, fair, and effective resolution of civil cases;

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the authority of the Chief Judge, under section 43.26, Florida Statutes, and Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.215 (b);

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The case management procedures outlined below must be followed in actions to which the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure apply, as identified in Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.010. As prescribed by AOSC 20-23, Amendment 12, this also applies to cases proceeding "under one or more of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure pursuant to Florida Small Claims Rule 7.020(c) if the deadline for the trial date specified in Florida Small Claims Rule 7.090(d) no longer applies." Per AOSC 20-23, Amendment 12, the case management procedures outlined below do not apply in cases proceeding under section 51.011, Florida Statutes, post-judgment proceedings, and writs filed pursuant to Fla.R.Civ.P. 1.630.
2. Each judge presiding in civil cases subject to this order shall review each of the civil cases pending in his or her division to determine whether the case is complex, streamlined, or general. These categories are defined as follows:
 - a. "Complex" cases are actions that have been or may be designated by court order as complex under Fla.R.Jud.P 1.201. Upon such designation, such an action should proceed as provided in the rule.
 - b. "Streamlined" cases are those cases meeting most or all of the following criteria, or as otherwise determined by the presiding judge: few parties; non-complex issues related to liability and damages; few anticipated pretrial motions; a limited need for discovery; few witnesses; minimal documentary evidence; no demand for jury trial and/or an anticipated trial length of less than two days.
 - c. "General" cases are all other civil cases.
3. A case management order must be issued for each pending and newly filed streamline or general civil case. Each case management order must include the following:
 - a. Deadlines for service of complaints, service under extensions, and the addition of new parties;
 - b. Deadlines by which fact and expert discovery shall be complete;
 - c. Deadlines by which all objections to pleadings and pretrial motions shall be resolved;
 - d. A deadline by which mediation shall have occurred;
 - e. A projected date of trial;
 - f. A statement that the deadlines included will be strictly enforced; and

- g. A statement that a firm trial date will be ordered when the case is at issue pursuant to Fla.R.Jud.P. 1.440.
4. If a streamlined or general civil case is subject to dismissal for a lack of prosecution under Fla.R.Jud.P. 1.420(e), a case management order is required only if the court determines that the action should remain pending. If the action remains pending, the case management order should be issued no later than 30 days after such determination is made by the presiding judge.
 5. In cases subject to a statutory stay or memorandum preventing the prosecution of the case the management order should be issued in accord with the following deadlines:
 - a. For cases filed on or after April 30, 2021, the case management order should be issued within 45 days after the stay or memorandum ends, or within 30 days after service of the complaint on the last of all named defendants, whichever date is later.
 - b. For cases filed before April 30, 2021, the case management order should be issued by December 3, 2021, within 45 days after the stay or moratorium ends, or within 30 days after service of the complaint on the last of all named defendants, whichever date is later. The case management order shall include each of the items prescribed above in paragraph 3, including the projected date of trial, if the trial has not yet occurred or a trial date has not yet been specified by separate order.
 6. In cases that are not subject to a statutory stay or moratorium, the case management order should be issued in accord with the following deadlines:
 - a. For cases filed on or after April 30, 2021, the case management order shall be issued within 30 days after service of the complaint on the last of all named defendants.
 - b. For cases filed before April 30, 2021, the case management order shall be issued by December 3, 2021. The case management order shall include each of the items prescribed above in paragraph 3, including the projected date of trial, if the trial has not yet occurred or a trial date has not yet been specified by separate order.
 7. Plaintiff (if self-represented) or Plaintiff's counsel should file a Notice of Final Service when the last named defendant has been served with the complaint to notify the presiding judge that service is complete and that the case management order may be prepared.
 8. For all existing and newly filed cases, the presiding judge will automatically generate a standard case management order containing deadlines in compliance with this order. Should any party desire to alter the initial case management order, and amended case management order meeting the time requirements outlined in this order may be prepared and stipulated to by the parties. The proposed order should be submitted for final approval by the presiding judge. The required form for the agreement is included as Attachment A. A sample management order is included as Attachment B.
 9. The following periods are applicable to the deadlines to be included in case management orders for streamlined cases:
 - a. Deadlines for service of complaints, service under extensions, and the addition of new parties: Service should be made within 120 days of the filing of the complaint unless the presiding judge grants an extension. The extension shall not exceed a time period beyond 240 days from the date of filing the complaint.
 - b. Deadlines to complete fact and expert discovery: Discovery should be complete within 270 days after the complaint is filed.
 - c. Deadline for objections to pleadings and resolution of pretrial motions: Objections to pleadings and pretrial motions should be resolved within 45 days of filing and prior to the pretrial conference.
 - d. Deadline for mediation: Mediation should be completed within 270 days after the complaint is filed.
 - e. Projected Trial Date: Trial dates should be set within 12 months of the filing complaint.

10. The following periods are applicable to the deadlines to be included in case management orders for general cases (unless otherwise ordered based on good cause):
 - a. Deadlines for service of complaints, service under extensions, and the addition of new parties: Service should be made within 120 days of the filing of the complaint unless the presiding judge grants an extension. The extension shall not exceed a time period beyond 240 days from the date of filing complaint.
 - b. Deadlines to complete fact and expert discovery: Discovery should be complete within 450 days after the complaint is filed.
 - c. Deadlines for objections to pleadings and resolution of pretrial motions: Objections to pleadings and pretrial motions should be resolved within 45 days of filing and prior to the pretrial conference.
 - d. Deadlines for mediation: Mediation should be completed within 450 days after the complaint is filed.
 - e. Projected Trial Date: Trial dates should be set within 18 months of the filing of the complaint.
11. All judges are directed to strictly comply with Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.545(a), (b), and (e), which respectively require judges to conclude litigation as soon as it is reasonably and justly possible to do so, to take charge of all cases at an early stage, and to control the progress of the case thereafter until it is determined, and to apply a firm continuance policy allowing continuances only for good cause shown.
12. Attorneys are also reminded that they must strictly comply with Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.545(a), which requires lawyers to conclude litigation as soon as it is reasonably and justly possible to do so, and that the pandemic alone is not basis for a lawyer's failure to prepare a case for trial or otherwise actively manage a case.
13. The procedures set forth in herein do not supplant any existing rule, statute, or law nor should they be construed as granting any rights not already provided by rule, statute, or law. To the extent that any provision of this Order may be construed as being in conflict with any rule, statute, or law, the rule, statute, or law shall prevail.
14. This order is effective April 30, 2021.

DONE AND ORDERED this 30th day of April, 2021.
