Notice: Additional Requirement

Service of Process in Action for Possession of Premises

In an action for possession of any residential premises Section 48.183, Florida Statutes, imposes an additional requirement if a landlord causes or anticipates causing a defendant to be served with a summons and complaint solely by having the Sheriff post the summons and complaint at the property.

Therefore, if the landlord anticipates or is informed by the Sheriff that the tenant/defendant cannot be served in person, the landlord must provide the Clerk of the Court with an additional copy of the complaint (and attachments) and a pre-stamped envelope addressed to the tenant/defendant at the premises involved in the proceeding.

At least five days must elapse after the Clerk mails the copy of the summons, complaint, and attachments to the tenant/defendant(s) before a default can be requested and a motion for default final judgment can be filed.

48.183 Service of process in action for possession of premises.

(1) In an action for possession of any residential premises, including those under chapters 83, 723, and 513, or nonresidential premises, if the tenant cannot be found in the county or there is no person 15 years of age or older residing at the tenant's usual place of abode in the county after at least two attempts to obtain service as provided above in this subsection, summons may be served by attaching a copy to a conspicuous place on the property described in the complaint or summons. The minimum time delay between the two attempts to obtain service shall be 6 hours. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting service of process on a tenant as is otherwise provided on defendants in civil cases.

(2) If a landlord causes or anticipates causing a defendant to be served with a summons and complaint solely by attaching them to some conspicuous place on the property described in the complaint or summons, the landlord shall provide the clerk of the court with an additional copy of the complaint and a prestamped envelope addressed to the defendant at the premises involved in the proceeding. The clerk of the court shall immediately mail the copy of the summons and complaint by first-class mail, note the fact of mailing in the docket, and file a certificate in the court file of the fact and date of mailing. Service shall be effective on the date of posting or mailing, whichever occurs later, and at least 5 days must elapse from the date of service before a judgment for final removal of the defendant may be entered.

83.22 Removal of tenant; service.

(1) After at least two attempts to obtain service as provided by law, if the defendant cannot be found in the county in which the action is pending and either the defendant has no usual place of abode in the county or there is no person 15 years of age or older residing at the defendant's usual place of abode in the county, the sheriff shall serve the summons by attaching it to some part of the premises involved in the proceeding. The minimum time delay between the two attempts to obtain service shall be 6 hours.

(2) If a landlord causes, or anticipates causing, a defendant to be served with a summons and complaint solely by attaching them to some conspicuous part of the premises involved in the proceeding, the landlord shall provide the clerk of the court with two additional copies of the complaint and two pre-stamped envelopes addressed to the defendant. One envelope shall be addressed to such address or location as has been designated by the tenant for receipt of notice in a written lease or other agreement or, if none has been designated, to the residence of the tenant, if known. The second envelope shall be addressed to the last known business address of the tenant. The clerk of the court shall immediately mail the copies of the summons and complaint by first-class mail, note the fact of mailing in the docket, and file a certificate in the court file of the fact and date of mailing. Service shall be effective on the date of posting or mailing, whichever occurs later; and at least 5 days from the date of service must have elapsed before a judgment for final removal of the defendant may be entered.

(1) This section applies only to actions governed by s. 82.03, s. 83.21, s. 83.59, or s. 723.061 and only to the extent that such actions seek relief for the removal of unknown parties in possession of real property. The provisions of this section are cumulative to other provisions of law or rules of court about service of process, and all other such provisions are cumulative to this section.

(2) A summons must be issued in the name of "Unknown Party in Possession" when the name of an occupant of real property is not known to the plaintiff and the property occupied by the unknown party is identified in the complaint and summons. A separate summons must be issued for each such unknown occupant.

(3) The plaintiff shall attempt to serve the summons on any unknown occupant of the property described in the summons and complaint. If service on the unknown occupant is not effectuated on the first attempt, at least two additional attempts must be made. The three attempts to obtain service must be made once during business hours, once during nonbusiness hours, and once during a weekend. The process server shall make an inquiry as to the name of the unknown occupant at the time of service. The return of service must note the name of the occupant if obtained by the process server or state that the name of the occupant could not be obtained after inquiry. If the name of the occupant becomes known to the plaintiff through the return of service or otherwise, without notice or hearing thereon, all subsequent proceedings must be conducted under the true name of such occupant and all prior proceedings are deemed amended accordingly.

(4) Service of process must also be made on unknown occupants by both of the following means:

(a) By attaching the summons and complaint to a conspicuous location on the premises involved in the proceedings.

(b) Upon issuance of the summons, by the plaintiff providing the clerk of the court with one additional copy of the summons and complaint for each unknown occupant and a prestamped envelope for each unknown occupant addressed to the unknown occupant at the address of the premises involved in the proceedings. The clerk of the court shall immediately mail a copy of the summons and complaint by first-class mail, note the fact of mailing in the docket, and file a certificate in the court file of the fact and date of mailing. The clerk of the court shall charge such fees for such services as provided by law.

(5) Service is effective on the unknown occupant in possession on the later of the date that personal service is made, the date of attaching the summons and complaint to a conspicuous location on the premises, or upon mailing by the clerk.

(6) The judgment and writ of possession must refer to any unknown occupant in possession by name if the name is shown on the return of service or is otherwise known to the plaintiff. If the name of any unknown occupant in possession is not shown on the return of service or otherwise known to the plaintiff and service has been effectuated as provided in this section, the judgment and writ of possession must refer to each such person as “Unknown Party in Possession,” and the writ of possession must be executed by the sheriff by dispossessing the occupants and placing the plaintiff in possession of the property.

LANDLORD FORMS – INSTRUCTIONS

Dear Landlord:

The attached forms are designed for use in the event of common landlord/tenant disputes. They should be used only for residential leases. If you have a commercial, agricultural, or personal property lease you should consult with an attorney. No form should be used until you have carefully reviewed and understand the instructions preceding the form and reviewed any referenced Florida Statute.

The residential landlord/tenant relationship is controlled by the terms of your lease and by Part II of Chapter 83 of the Florida Statutes. The procedures for enforcing your rights under your lease and Part II of Chapter 83 are set forth in section 51.011, Florida Statutes. You are advised to carefully review these statutes before starting any legal proceeding concerning a residential lease. Copies of these statutes are usually available at the law library located at your county courthouse and at your public library.

Before you can start a lawsuit to end a residential lease, you must first give proper written notice to the tenant(s). The form of the notice will depend on the landlord's reason for terminating the lease. There are two common reasons for a landlord to terminate a lease and evict a tenant. Those reasons are:

- The tenant has not paid his rent on time.
- The tenant has not complied with the requirements of the lease or has violated Florida Statutes.

Forms 1 and 2 contain the notices the landlord will need to send to the tenant(s) to terminate the lease and evict the tenant for those two common reasons.

There are generally, two other reasons for a landlord to terminate a lease to evict a tenant(s). Those reasons are:

- The tenant has violated the rental agreement for failure to comply with its statutory obligations to maintain the dwelling unit or material provisions of the rental agreement (other than failure to pay rent).
- The landlord needs possession, and it is not for any of the above reasons.

Forms 2 and 3 contain the notices the landlord will need to send to the tenant to terminate the lease and evict the tenant(s) for the above two reasons.

The landlord will need to either hand deliver, post, or mail any of the Florida compliant notices to the tenant in order to terminate the lease and evict the tenant for those reasons listed. The landlord will need to keep a true and correct copy of the notice for their records should an eviction lawsuit need to be filed later because the tenant has not complied with the notice given.

After sending the notice, it may be necessary to file a suit if the tenant(s) refuse to vacate the property in the time prescribed in the notice. The landlord will, as a general rule, have a suit against the tenant not only to evict the tenant (have the tenant removed from the property), but also for damages for unpaid rent. Form 5A contains a complaint both for eviction and for damages for unpaid rent. If the amount of damages exceeds $50,000 you should not use this form. If a landlord wants to evict a tenant for breaches of the lease other than failure to pay rent, the suit may be for eviction only. Form 6 contains the complaint to evict a tenant for failure to comply with the lease other than the payment of rent. Form 5 contains the complaint to evict for non-payment of rent.

At the time the complaint is filed a landlord must ask the clerk of the court to issue summonses. After the summonses are issued, the landlord will deliver those summonses to the sheriff or a certified process server with a copy of the complaint, and all attachments, for service on the tenant(s). A separate summons is necessary for an eviction and to recover damages for unpaid rent. If a landlord is suing a tenant both to evict him and for damages, he will need to have both summonses issued and delivered to the sheriff with the complaint. Form 7 contains the form of the summons for eviction and Form 8 the additional summons to be used if unpaid rent and/or damages are also sought. There is a $40.00 service fee required by the Sheriff's office for the effectuation of each summons on each tenant(s). There is also a $10.00 or $17.00 fee required by the clerk's office for each summons issued/and or prepared on each tenant(s).

Once the complaint has been served on the tenant and the Clerk or the Court has entered a default against the tenant, the landlord may request that a judgment be entered. For eviction only, the landlord can request a default after five days, not counting the date of service, weekends, and holidays. If the tenant answers the complaint and follows the instructions listed in the summons, the case will be set for a hearing and parties will be notified of the hearing date. If the tenant files an answer and does not comply with depositing rent money into the court registry, a motion for immediate default may be filed. However, keep in mind that once a tenant files an answer with the Court, the decision as to what happens next is always up to the Judge assigned to the case. The clerk of courts is the keeper of the court records, not the decision maker; that is the sole responsibility of the Judge.

If the landlord is requesting a judgment for unpaid rent and damages (after successful service has been effectuated. A default as to the count II (back rent and damages) cannot be requested until 20 calendar days after successful service on the tenant/defendant.

If the court rules that the landlord is entitled to evict the tenant and/or recover damages for unpaid rent, the court will sign a judgment in the landlord's favor. Form 17 contains the form of a final judgment for eviction. Should a landlord receive a final judgment for eviction he must ask the clerk of the court to execute a Writ of Possession. The form of the Writ of Possession is Form 18. The Writ of Possession should be delivered to the sheriff for service on the tenant after execution by the clerk. The Sheriff's office charges $90.00 for this service. The tenant(s) will have 24 hours to vacate the property after the service of the writ of possession by the Sheriff's office.

The landlord generally may keep the security deposit to apply against damage to the property caused by the tenant. The landlord's right to keep the security deposit is strictly limited by the Florida Statutes. To keep the security deposit the landlord must send a notice to the tenant. Form 9 provides you with the form for a Notice of Intent to Claim Security Deposit.

FORM 1 — NOTICE FROM LANDLORD TO TENANT — TERMINATION FOR FAILURE TO PAY RENT

This notice may be delivered by mail or by delivering a copy to the dwelling unit, or, if the Tenant is absent from the dwelling unit, by leaving a copy thereof at the dwelling unit.

FORM 10— MOTION FOR CLERK’S DEFAULT— RESIDENTIAL EVICTION

FORM 11— MOTION FOR CLERK’S DEFAULT— DAMAGES (RESIDENTIAL EVICTION)

FORM 12— MOTION FOR JUDICIAL DEFAULT AS TO COUNT II DAMAGES CLAIM

What Happens After The Tenant Is Served?

The tenant has five (5) working days after being served in which to answer in writing to the Court why they think they should not have to move.

In an action by the landlord for possession of dwelling unit, if the tenant introduces any defense other than payment, the tenant is required to pay into the registry of the court the accrued rent as alleged in the Complaint for Possession or as determined by the court and the rent which accrues during the pendency of the proceeding when due.

If the tenant moves in the time allowed by law after being served or pays the rent, the landlord should notify the Clerk’s office in writing so the case may be dismissed and closed. Judgment may be entered if the tenant moves owing rent and has not offered written defenses to the court, only if personal service has been perfected.

If the tenant answers in writing and deposits the rent demanded into the registry of court (if applicable) before the time allowed by law has elapsed the case may be scheduled for an eviction hearing before a judge. Should a hearing occur, the Judge will rule on whether the tenant must move and if so, when they are to move.

If the tenant does not move or does not answer as stated above, within the time allowed by law, the landlord is entitled to a default. The landlord must formally request the Clerk enter a default by filing a Motion for Default; a copy of the motion and affidavit must be served on the Defendant. The forms provide a certificate of service to be completed establishing proper service of the motion and affidavit.

FORM 15— AFFIDAVIT OF DAMAGES
FORM 16— NONMILITARY AFFIDAVIT

The tenant will have five days, after service, to file a written response to a Complaint for eviction, and 20 days, after service, to file a written response to a complaint for back rent and damages. If the tenant fails to file a written response in that time the landlord is entitled to a judgment by default.

Obtaining the judgment is a two-step process. First, a clerk's default should be obtained by delivering to the clerk of the court an executed Motion for Clerk's Default. Form 13 should be used to obtain a clerk's default when the tenant has failed to respond to an eviction complaint and Form 14 should be used to obtain a clerk's default when the tenant has failed to respond to a complaint for back rent and damages. To be entitled to a default, Form 15, Nonmilitary Affidavit, must be filed with the clerk.

Second, based on the clerk's default, a default final judgment should be obtained from the judge handling the case. The default final judgment is obtained by delivering to the court a Motion for Default Final Judgment – Residential Eviction (Form 12) and/or a Motion for Default Final Judgment – Damages (Residential Eviction) (Form 13) with an Affidavit of Damages (Form 15). If the landlord is seeking a Default Final Judgment – Damages (Residential Eviction), a copy of the motion and affidavit must be served on the defendant. The forms provide a certificate of service to be completed establishing proper service of the motion and affidavit.

The fee for signing a document before a notary at the Clerk's office is $10.00.

FORM 17 — FINAL JUDGMENT — EVICTION

After the Court enters this judgment, you should obtain a certified copy of the judgment from the Clerk of the Court and record the certified copy in the public records in any county in which the Tenant owns real property. The Clerk of the Small Claims Court can probably provide you with information concerning the collection of the amounts owed you.

FORM 18 — FINAL JUDGMENT — DAMAGES

A judgment for money (if properly recorded) is a lien upon the real or personal property of the person against whom the judgment is entered for a period of ten years. The lien may then be extended for an additional period of ten years by re-recording a certified copy of the judgment prior to the expiration of the lien, and by simultaneously recording an affidavit with the current address who has a lien because of the judgment. The lien may not be extended beyond twenty years from the date of entry of the judgment, or beyond the point the lien is satisfied, whichever occurs first.

1. The case management procedures outlined below must be followed in actions to which the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure apply, as identified in Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.010. As prescribed by AOSC 20-23, Amendment 12, this also applies to cases proceeding "under one or more of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure pursuant to Florida Small Claims Rule 7.020(c) if the deadline for the trial date specified in Florida Small Claims Rule 7.090(d) no longer applies." Per AOSC 20-23, Amendment 12, the case management procedures outlined below do not apply in cases proceeding under section 51.011, Florida Statutes, post-judgment proceedings, and writs filed pursuant to Fla.R.Civ.P. 1.630.
2. Each judge presiding in civil cases subject to this order shall review each of the civil cases pending in his or her division to determine whether the case is complex, streamlined, or general. These categories are defined as follows:
  - a. "Complex" cases are actions that have been or may be designated by court order as complex under Fla.R.Jud.P 1.201. Upon such designation, such an action should proceed as provided in the rule.
  - b. "Streamlined" cases are those cases meeting most or all of the following criteria, or as otherwise determined by the presiding judge: few parties; non-complex issues related to liability and damages; few anticipated pretrial motions; a limited need for discovery; few witnesses; minimal documentary evidence; no demand for jury trial and/or an anticipated trial length of less than two days.
  - c. "General" cases are all other civil cases.
3. A case management order must be issued for each pending and newly filed streamline or general civil case. Each case management order must include the following:
  - a. Deadlines for service of complaints, service under extensions, and the addition of new parties;
  - b. Deadlines by which fact and expert discovery shall be complete;
  - c. Deadlines by which all objections to pleadings and pretrial motions shall be resolved;
  - d. A deadline by which mediation shall have occurred;
  - e. A projected date of trial;
  - f. A statement that the deadlines included will be strictly enforced; and

- g. A statement that a firm trial date will be ordered when the case is at issue pursuant to Fla.R.Jud.P. 1.440.
4. If a streamlined or general civil case is subject to dismissal for a lack of prosecution under Fla.R.Jud.P. 1.420(e), a case management order is required only if the court determines that the action should remain pending. If the action remains pending, the case management order should be issued no later than 30 days after such determination is made by the presiding judge.
  5. In cases subject to a statutory stay or memorandum preventing the prosecution of the case the management order should be issued in accord with the following deadlines:
    - a. For cases filed on or after April 30, 2021, the case management order should be issued within 45 days after the stay or memorandum ends, or within 30 days after service of the complaint on the last of all named defendants, whichever date is later.
    - b. For cases filed before April 30, 2021, the case management order should be issued by December 3, 2021, within 45 days after the stay or moratorium ends, or within 30 days after service of the complaint on the last of all named defendants, whichever date is later. The case management order shall include each of the items prescribed above in paragraph 3, including the projected date of trial, if the trial has not yet occurred or a trial date has not yet been specified by separate order.
  6. In cases that are not subject to a statutory stay or moratorium, the case management order should be issued in accord with the following deadlines:
    - a. For cases filed on or after April 30, 2021, the case management order shall be issued within 30 days after service of the complaint on the last of all named defendants.
    - b. For cases filed before April 30, 2021, the case management order shall be issued by December 3, 2021. The case management order shall include each of the items prescribed above in paragraph 3, including the projected date of trial, if the trial has not yet occurred or a trial date has not yet been specified by separate order.
  7. Plaintiff (if self-represented) or Plaintiff's counsel should file a Notice of Final Service when the last named defendant has been served with the complaint to notify the presiding judge that service is complete and that the case management order may be prepared.
  8. For all existing and newly filed cases, the presiding judge will automatically generate a standard case management order containing deadlines in compliance with this order. Should any party desire to alter the initial case management order, and amended case management order meeting the time requirements outlined in this order may be prepared and stipulated to by the parties. The proposed order should be submitted for final approval by the presiding judge. The required form for the agreement is included as Attachment A. A sample management order is included as Attachment B.
  9. The following periods are applicable to the deadlines to be included in case management orders for streamlined cases:
    - a. Deadlines for service of complaints, service under extensions, and the addition of new parties: Service should be made within 120 days of the filing of the complaint unless the presiding judge grants an extension. The extension shall not exceed a time period beyond 240 days from the date of filing the complaint.
    - b. Deadlines to complete fact and expert discovery: Discovery should be complete within 270 days after the complaint is filed.
    - c. Deadline for objections to pleadings and resolution of pretrial motions: Objections to pleadings and pretrial motions should be resolved within 45 days of filing and prior to the pretrial conference.
    - d. Deadline for mediation: Mediation should be completed within 270 days after the complaint is filed.

- e. Projected Trial Date: Trial dates should be set within 12 months of the filing complaint.
10. The following periods are applicable to the deadlines to be included in case management orders for general cases (unless otherwise ordered based on good cause):
- a. Deadlines for service of complaints, service under extensions, and the addition of new parties: Service should be made within 120 days of the filing of the complaint unless the presiding judge grants an extension. The extension shall not exceed a time period beyond 240 days from the date of filing complaint.
  - b. Deadlines to complete fact and expert discovery: Discovery should be complete within 450 days after the complaint is filed.
  - c. Deadlines for objections to pleadings and resolution of pretrial motions: Objections to pleadings and pretrial motions should be resolved within 45 days of filing and prior to the pretrial conference.
  - d. Deadlines for mediation: Mediation should be completed within 450 days after the complaint is filed.
  - e. Projected Trial Date: Trial dates should be set within 18 months of the filing of the complaint.
11. All judges are directed to strictly comply with Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.545(a), (b), and (e), which respectively require judges to conclude litigation as soon as it is reasonably and justly possible to do so, to take charge of all cases at an early stage, and to control the progress of the case thereafter until it is determined, and to apply a firm continuance policy allowing continuances only for good cause shown.
12. Attorneys are also reminded that they must strictly comply with Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.545(a), which requires lawyers to conclude litigation as soon as it is reasonably and justly possible to do so, and that the pandemic alone is not basis for a lawyer's failure to prepare a case for trial or otherwise actively manage a case.
13. The procedures set forth in herein do not supplant any existing rule, statute, or law nor should they be construed as granting any rights not already provided by rule, statute, or law. To the extent that any provision of this Order may be construed as being in conflict with any rule, statute, or law, the rule, statute, or law shall prevail.
14. This order is effective April 30, 2021.
